

Creative responses to trauma: witnessing resistance

A day with Vikki Reynolds

Vikki Reynolds, offers an alternative approach to work with 'trauma'. Honouring the wisdom and witnessing the resistance capacities of the people we work alongside in their responses to trauma, brings forward their agency and identities of knowledge, autonomy and strength.

"The act of witnessing, the concept of solidarity and a deep commitment to justice have evolved from my activist experiences and are integrated into my current community work. In bridging activism and community work, I envision our collective community work as doable and sustainable."

Vikki's experience includes consulting, training and clinical supervision with refugees and survivors of torture, mental health and substance abuse counsellors, rape crisis counsellors, frontline and housing workers and transgender and queer communities.
