

BSW and HUMS program invites all Field Instructors

Field Instructor Appreciation Day April 25, 2017 | 9-4

Join us for our appreciation day as we offer gratitude and thanks for your service to our students and community.

Workshop 1: Centering Ethics in Group Supervision
8:45 – 11:45 am
Arts and Education Building Room AE308

Lunch
12:00 -1:00 pm
International Building Panorama Room

Workshop 2: Resisting Burnout
1:15 – 4:15 pm
Arts and Education Building Room AE308

Feel free to join one, two or all three of the free events

RSVP by April 18, 2017 to Michelle at mrutsatz@tru.ca

Please indicate which events you plan to attend and any dietary restrictions

Vikki Reynolds PhD RCC

Vikki has a deep commitment to social justice and her work is based on an anti-oppression and decolonizing framework. She plays a leading role in building communities in a spirit of solidarity, putting ethics at the forefront. Vikki Reynolds is a Consultant, Instructor and Supervisor specializing in Team Development, Resisting Burnout and Organizational Change. Her work addresses Addiction, Substance Misuse, Diversity, Homelessness, Trauma and Violence. As a Clinical Supervisor and Therapeutic Supervisor Vikki is informed by narrative therapy and collaborative therapy, and provides individual and group Clinical Supervision to therapists and community workers. Vikki's articles and talks are available for free on her website www.vikkireynolds.ca

Vikki works and lives on unceded x̱m̱əθkwəy̱əm (Musqueam), Sḵwx̱wú7mesh (Squamish), and Səḻílwətaʔ (Tseil-Waututh) territories

